Fullwhite Curve

Projection Screens - Fixed

#Custom

You are already familiar with curved projection screens but you're looking for a more architecture-compatible solution which completely hides all technology? Fullwhite Curve is a custom made projection screen for design-demanding applications. Fullwhite Curve consists of a solid frame construction and a flexible projection surface. The basic frame which was originally developed for the Fullwhite projection screen creates the unique border and dephtless appearance.

Specifications

- Custom-made product.
- Available on special orders.

Contact us for details.